Whether in Vienna, Innsbruck, Bolivia or Togo: All around the world there are children who have problems or who are fighting to survive.
Many live on the street, in slums or are, as children, already the main provider for the family.

This group of people supports a wide range of projects to help children and to ease their suffering. The projects supported include: Education promotion, improved medical and food supplies, fighting illness, support of children with illnesses that cannot be cured and much more.
